

Walking Dead Writing Rubric

Name: _____

Due Date: _____

	Exceeds Expectations 5	Meets Expectations 4	Approaching Expectations 3	Does Not Meet Expectations 2	Comments
Comprehension of Key Ideas and Details	The student response provides an accurate analysis of the concept/text, showing he/she fully comprehends the information and ideas.	The student response provides an accurate analysis of the concept/text, showing he/she comprehends the information and ideas at a basic level.	The student response provides an analysis of the concept/text, but some of the information is incorrect or vague. It does not prove he/she has a basic comprehension of the information and ideas.	The student response has more incorrect information than correct. This student does not comprehend the concept/text.
Development of Ideas in Written Expression	The student response addresses the prompt, uses several specific details to support the topic sentence, and fully explains the details (cites textual evidence).	The student response addresses the prompt and uses specific details to support the topic sentence (cites textual evidence).	The student response addresses the prompt and uses some details to support the topic. There are not enough details and/or explanations to fully answer the question.	The student response may be off topic or the response uses little to no supporting details/evidence.
Organization of Written Response	The student response includes a strong introduction, body, and conclusion with a logical progression of ideas.	The student response includes an introduction, body, and conclusion that is easy to follow.	The student response demonstrates some coherence and/or cohesion with an introduction, body, and conclusion.	The student response is missing the introduction and/or conclusion; the ideas are difficult to follow.
Clarity of Written Response	The student response is very easy to read and understand. There are no noticeable or distracting mistakes and/or errors.	The student response is easy to read and understand. There are minor mistakes and/or errors that do not distract the reader.	The student response has some distracting mistakes and/or errors making it difficult to read/understand at times.	The student response is difficult to read and understand due to the high amount of mistakes and/or errors.

TOTAL _____/20